2021 DAY TRIP INFORMATION – THURSDAY, 16 SEPTEMBER

The National Army Museum celebrates the selfless service and sacrifice of over 30 million men and women who have worn the Army uniform since 1775. It is a technological marvel incorporating the latest advances in museum exhibits while providing advanced educational opportunities that capture the attention of visitors old and young. As the Army’s national landmark, the Museum honors United States Soldiers – past, present, and future – and provides an interactive educational experience explaining the Army’s role in creating and defending our nation, as well as the Army’s social initiatives and contributions for more than 240 years.

The National Army Museum is located on 84 acres at Fort Belvoir, VA, less than 30 minutes south of our nation’s capital in Washington, D.C. The main building is approximately 185,000 square feet and displays selections from the Army Art Collection, artifacts, documents, and images. The vast majority of these rare and priceless artifacts have never been seen by the American people. The Museum will welcome an estimated 500,000 to 700,000 visitors every year.

2021 SPECIAL EVENT – SATURDAY, 18 SEPTEMBER

The United States Army Old Guard Fife and Drum Corps is the only unit of its kind in the armed forces. As an official representative of the U.S. Army, the Corps averages approximately 500 performances annually. The Corps has entertained millions of people in major parades, pageants, and historical celebrations throughout the United States; and has served America as a goodwill ambassador as far away as Europe, Australia, and Canada. In support of the president, the Corps performs at all armed-forces arrival ceremonies for visiting dignitaries and heads of state at the White House and has participated in every Presidential Inaugural Parade since President John F. Kennedy's in 1961.

To honor the Corp's 60th anniversary, the Fife and Drum Corp will perform a special concert for The Old Guard Association and the Fife and Drum Corps Alumni in Conmy Hall on 18 September at 1430. This presentation will document the evolution of the Corps from their early days as a "musical activity" to their current status as one of the preeminent military musical organizations in the world. The concert will feature music performed by the Fife and Drum Corps from 1960 to the present day with a multimedia presentation to highlight the Corp's unique history including significant achievements, changes, and future direction.

How can I attend this event?

Complete this form and return it with your Reunion Registration. Attendance is free. A coach will depart the hotel at 1400. A second trip will be scheduled if additional transportation is needed.
